CODE OF CONDUCT

Following this simple Code of Conduct helps ensure a safe convention and that everyone will have fun. Your own good judgment and courtesy towards others are key.

Please watch out for each other, take care of one another, help those who need help, and be careful. Play it clean, sober, and safe! Please don't leave the Event with strangers, and make sure that your friends know when you leave or if you are going home early.

- Please don't hesitate to call security if you see anything suspicious.
- Minors should not go to hotel rooms with unknown adults.

To participate in and/or attend any Animangapop Event (referred to below as the "Event" regardless of whether it's Animangapop, or another one of our Events), you must comply with this Code of Conduct in order to attend and/or participate in these Events. AMP reserves the right to modify and/or update any AMP policy at any time without prior notice. Violation of this Code of Conduct may result in forfeiture of your Event entrance, your expulsion from the Event and/or termination of your position with AMP. Where the Code of Conduct refers to "AMP's written consent", such written consent may be in the form of a separate written exhibitor/sponsorship agreement, vendor agreement, facility rental agreement, or other form of written agreement or permit. Event Facilities, event hotels, and all other places where any Event programming is scheduled are "Event Facilities".

AFTER PARTY

- Please be prepared to show proof of age and identification when entering the After Party at the Event. We will only accept the following forms of identification: government-issued driver's licenses or identification cards, passports, or military identification.
- Please wear your wristbands/lanyards at all times during the Event. Terms and conditions available on animangapop.co.uk apply to you and you must conduct yourself accordingly.
