RECORDING POLICY: TAKING PICTURES

Animangapop® and the Keep It Secret Company reserve the right to modify and/or update this policy at any time in their sole discretion and without prior notice.

Recordings of You: You are advised and given notice that Keep It Secret Company permits people and companies to take photographs and make recordings at Animangapop Events, and post them on social media and use them for many lawful purposes. By attending the Event, you agree to be photographed or recorded during the Event (in still photographs, audio recordings, video recordings and any other media, now known or hereafter discovered, hereafter "Recordings"), by attendees, vendors, Keep It Secret Company, and others without compensation. By attending the Event, you grant to Animangapop the rights, but not the obligation, to reproduce, display, distribute, perform, create derivative works from, and otherwise use any Keep It Secret Company Recordings of you in any media and in any manner throughout the world in perpetuity, including on the internet, broadcast, live simulcast, satellite and other transmissions.

Your Recordings of Others: You are generally allowed to make Recordings in all common areas of the Event, with the exception of the Art Show, backstage, and restricted areas. Specific rules and restrictions regarding Recordings apply to specific venues, concerts, and Events, such as when a Guest of Honor prohibits photographs of their performance. If you are unsure, please check for signage, and if you do not see any, be respectful and do not make Recordings.

As a courtesy, and without changing this policy in any way, please obtain permission first to make Recordings of any individuals or costumes. If someone asks or otherwise indicates that they do not wish to be recorded, do not record them. The Keep It Secret Company will make reasonable efforts to enforce this policy, but given the proliferation of recording devices and the ease with which Event attendees may conceal their recording devices, it is understood and agreed that Animangapop/Keep it Secret Company shall not be liable for violations.
