

Traders F.A.Q

The F.A.Q is setup to help and advise new traders as regulars due to a change in venue and also the show migrating from a 1 day to a 2 day event. Please feel free to print off this document for contact information, location details are more.

How far is the 'Future Inn' from the City Center?

The new venue is approx. 4.0 miles from the center of town, 3.5 miles from the train station or 1.3 miles from the A38. There are also buses every 20 mins from the city center.

Is there any parking?

The great news about moving venue's is there is lots of Free parking! Over 100+ spaces available for Vans and Cars so no need to worry too much about finding a space.

Access for Traders into the show?

Just like the previous venue this show is all situated on the ground-floor. There is a specific back entrance with double-doors which we will be able to use for loading and unloading of traders goods.

Can we setup on Friday?

Currently at the time of writing this the team are still negotiating a friday setup. However, details will be provided to all paid-up traders a few weeks before the show.

Can we do only one day of trading?

Due to the very nature of the show being a 2 x day event trader and artist tables will be available on a 'weekend only' basis. We will not be selling Day trader tickets.

Can I have a helper for the show?

Yes, you are allowed 2 x people per 6ft table up to the maximum of 4 people. Any more than this then you will need to purchase additional trader passes which can be made available on request.
